

---

Biography

Monica Armster Rainge, Esq.

Director of Land Retention and Advocacy
Federation of Southern Cooperatives/ Land Assistance Fund

Hater is a human rights and community development lawyer. She is an Assistant Professor of Law and the Director of the, newly named, Community

Monica Armster Rainge is an agricultural lawyer and mediator. She serves as the Director of Land Retention and Advocacy for the Federation of Southern Cooperatives/ Land Assistance Fund in East Point, Georgia. She leads the development and management of high quality outreach and technical assistance programs that support regional land retention and advocacy initiatives for Socially Disadvantaged Farmers and Ranchers. She also directs the Federation's Regional Heirs Property and Mediation Center which provides USDA Certified mediation services in Georgia, Mississippi, and Louisiana. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Agricultural Business from Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University and a Juris Doctor from the University of Florida. She earned a Master of Laws in Agricultural Law from the University of Arkansas School of Law's Graduate Program in Agricultural Law. Attorney Rainge serves as an executive board member(treasurer) of the National Family Farm Coalition and serves on the boards of the Southern Rural Development Center and Farmers Legal Action Group (FLAG).